1. Because it fears that any Chinese who is arrested will be deported by the Thai Government, the Siam Communist Party* has adopted the policy of delegating more responsibility for Party activities to Thais, rather than to Chinese.
2. The Party also plans to make increasing use of former Free Thai elements.
3. In addition to these measures, the Party is attending to the training of suitable Thais. The Communist-controlled Central Labor Union is selecting Thai workers to be sent to China where they will receive indoctrination courses in Communism.
4. The Party is also promoting antipathy toward the Thai Government among the students of the University of Moral and Political Sciences.

25X1A * Comment. The Communist Party of Thailand appears to be the organization here referred to.
